

The Poo Chart

GHOST POO:

You know you've pooped. There's poo on the toilet paper but none in the toilet.

TEFLON COATED POO:

Comes out slick, clean and easy that you don't even feel it! No trace of poo on the toilet paper. You have to look in the toilet bowl to make sure you did it.

GOOEY POO:

This has the consistency of hot tar. You wipe 12 times and you still don't come clean. You end up putting toilet paper in your underwear so you don't stain them. This leaves permanent skid marks in the toilet.

SECOND THOUGHT POO:

You're all done wiping and you're about to stand up when you realize it... you've got some more.

POP A VEIN IN YOUR FOREHEAD POO:

This is the kind of poo that killed Elvis. It doesn't want to come out until you're all sweaty and trembling and purple from straining so hard.

WEIGHT WATCHERS POO:

You poo so much, you lose several kilograms.

RIGHT NOW POO:

You had better be within 10 seconds of a toilet. You burn rubber getting to the toilet. Usually it has its head poking out before you can get your pants down.

KING KONG OR COMMODOE CHOCKER POO:

This one is so big that you know it won't go down the toilet unless you break it down into smaller chunks. A wire coat hanger works well. This kind of poo usually happens at someone else's house.

CORK POO: (Also known as floaters)

Even after the third flush its still floating in the bowl. My God! How do I get rid of it?

WET CHEEK POO:

The poo hits thee water sideways and makes a BIG splash that gets you all wet.

WISH POO:

You sit there all cramped up and fart a few times, but no poo.

CEMENT BLOCK POO: (WITH EXTRA BLUE METAL):

You wish you'd gotten a spinal before you pooped.

SNAKE POO:

This poo is fairly soft and is about as thick as your thumb and is at least 3 feet long.

BEER DRUNK AND MEAT PIE POO:

Normally your poo doesn't smell too bad, but this one is BAD.... usually happens at someone else's house and there's someone standing outside to use the bathroom.

MEXICAN FOOD POO: (ALSO CALLED SCREAMERS)

You'll know it's alright to eat again when your bum stops burning.

THE CHINESE FOOD POO:

Half an hour after one you'll need another one.
